

PIEDMONT COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Cub Scout day camps are organized by the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America and conducted by volunteers from the local area. Day camps are for registered Cub Scouts entering the 1st-5th grades the 2018 fall school year. Those entering the 1st grade must be accompanied by an adult partner during their participation.

Day Camps are conducted by adult volunteer's leadership who were trained and certified at one of the Boy Scouts of America's National Camping Schools. Day Camps are also supported by adult and youth staff members. Boy Scout Den Chiefs may also support the day camp program by assisting the Cub Scout throughout the camp.

A variety of different activities are offered to allow participants to experience outdoor programs for Cub Scouts; many of which are designed to earn advancements.

Most camps include activities based on STEM, nature, shooting sports, games, and possibly aquatics. Adult volunteers make up the nucleus of the day camp staff by volunteering in positions to lead specific programs, support the general operation, or by managing a den of Cub Scouts throughout their time at camp.
